

ALBANIAN KING BLAMED FOR WAR BY EX-MINISTER

George Fred Williams Says Government is Pure Hypocrisy and is the Result of Greediness of Great Powers.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The New York American Saturday prints the following:

In response to a cablegram asking for a statement which led him to denounce the "murderous government of Prince Wied of Albania" the New York American has received the following:

BY GEORGE F. WILLIAMS.
ATHENS, Greece, July 11.—The great journals of Germany, Italy and Austria and even the Paris Herald and the London Times have published columns on the murder of the Archduke Francis Ferdinand of Austria, but unanimously refused to expose the "murder" of an entire people, an innocent people—by a German prince supported by the powers of Europe. Hence I gladly appeal to the lively-loving people of America.

Mr. Williams then explains how the government of Albania was set up, although not favored by the Albanian people. The inhabitants are either Mohammedans, Roman or Greek Catholics. The Commission of International Control, representing the six great powers took charge until they could find a ruler and then turned the government over to him.

Playing a Deep Game.
In the south he continues the Epi-rods had declared their independence with Mr. Zogoraphos as president and the insurgent forces had bottled up the prince in Durazzo. Italy and Austria were playing a deep game to outwit each other. All the powers had warships in the harbor to protect the prince while Italy and Austria each wanted to grab the entire country and was determined that the other should have none of it.

The authority I asked of my government having been granted me, I went to Argyrocastro, the capital seat of the provisional government. The provisional ministry had arranged an agreement or protocol with the C. I. C., whereby Epirus was to be delivered over to the Wied government. Misunderstandings had arisen over the protocol. I possessed myself of the facts and proposed to Mr. Zogoraphos I would try to adjust the differences even though I was opposed to the protocol as a mere trick to get possession of Epirus without force.
I also went into the Albanian lands under a military escort and investigated the massacres of Mohammedans.

Mass of Hypocrisy.
Then I went to Durazzo but I learned from one of its members that the C. I. C. would not receive me. I do not know why. It was evident that the commission was playing fast and loose with Zogoraphos or else it would welcome me. Everybody told me the facts confidentially and I then came to realize that the whole affair from the six powers down to the ministers was a mass hypocrisy, humbug and dishonesty. I could not conceive how the whole world including myself had been deluded under the idea that the Wied government was anything but a force. But there was one dreadful reality beyond my chamber window, opening on the marsh. Fusil-lades of musketry and the booming of cannon greeted my ears. Men were dying before my eyes, men on opposing sides, but all Albanians.

I found that the prince of Wied, to protect himself against the Moslem insurgents, had brought down 2,000 Catholics from the north. I found also that he was dictating the Christians of Epirus with the Moslems of Volonia, that he had set brother against brother, so that he might have his title as ruler.

I have found that the prince was hiding in the palace, protected by marines; that he did not even dare

BAD OPERATION AVOIDED

By Timely Use of Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable
Compound.

Mrs. Sowers' Own Statement.

Hodgdon, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me.
One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four.
I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAY-WARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

vice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman,

Enemy Against Crown.
My heart sickened at the shedding of the blood of the Albanians that this silly dog fancied might wear a crown, and I made up my mind to devote myself to wrecking his usurpation. I went to Volonia and stirred up the people to declare independence. I took means of reaching the contending forces and showing them the folly of butchering each other that all might be enslaved. I began my work to get the various sections of Albania to unite in cantonal form and create a federation for mutual defense.

I have some splendid helpers whose work I shall disclose when it is further advanced. I issued in Athens a broadside attacking the whole scheme. All Greece responded with enthusiasm, but I was welcomed as the founder of a new diplomacy of freedom. Even the Epirus president declared that if Epirus got her freedom it was due to the American minister. Military officers have offered me their fealty and I am now in communication with the insurgents and Catholics who are fighting for Prince William at Durazzo. This very day the Epirote assembly meets to adopt or reject the Corfu arrangement to which I am opposed. It will be definitely postponed. Of course I had to resign as minister of the United States for I could not plot against the six great powers of Europe and hold my place. This defenseless Albanian nation is attacked by a lot of ravenous monarchial wolves. Thanks to my experience in United States politics I am a good wolf hunter.

Let all my well wishers rejoice that this high privilege has fallen to me.
We glory in the support which came from the United States when Greece and Poland were struggling for liberty. Is Albania to be a Greece or Poland? We shall see.

GOOD CROP TALK HELPS BUSINESS

Optimism Found Where Harvest Is Good—Mid-Summer Dullness
Is About to Pass.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Bradstreet's report for Saturday will say:

"Mid-summer dullness is present in many but not all lines, crop reports continuing generally good and optimism as to the future still finds most expression in the sections which have gathered or expect to gather large crops. The week's business, though broken by a holiday seems to have been good in the west and slow to dull in the southwest. Dry goods and wearing apparel have led in western trade and southwestern millers have made large sales of new crop flour to the continent. Export sales of new crop wheat have been large, but of late sellers have shown an indisposition to bind themselves to early shipments. Idle cars are decreasing. Exceptions to the quiet in the east are found in the raw wool trade at Boston which is active at high prices, and in the cotton goods trade, where sales of convertible goods are reported enlarging and where sales of wash fabrics by jobbers are good.

Industrial operations are quiet as a whole, but significance is lent to the undeniable tone of optimism bred of good crop talk by reports from iron and steel authorities that trade in that line has turned the corners and that June orders booked by the leading interests were the largest of the year, and that unfilled orders were expected to show a gain after months of decreases.

"In financial lines the feeling seems more optimistic. Business failures for the week ending July 9 were 247 which compares with 243 last week, 239 in the like week of 1913, 252 in 1912, 196 in 1911 and 202 in 1910."

BUYERS VISIT MARKETS

Number to Journey to Chicago Larger Than Last Year.

CHICAGO, July 11.—The John V.
Farwell company of Chicago, in its weekly review of the dry goods trade makes the following comment on conditions:

"That business conditions from the wholesale dry goods viewpoint are showing improvement is evidenced by the increased number of buyers who have visited this market since July 1 in comparison with same period last year.

"The question of style of fabrics for fall is now practically established. Volume of business in wool dress goods shows a decided gain over similar period in 1913."

QUARTET ACCUSED OF DISCLOSING SECRETS

Uncle Sam Causes Indictments as Result of Story on Panama Canal.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Warrants charging the disclosure of authorities were issued Friday against Charles K. Field, editor of Sunset Magazine, and former president of the Bohemian club, and three contributors to the magazine, Scott E. Riley, author; Ray A. Duhem, photographer, and Robert J. Fowler, aviator. Field gave himself up Friday afternoon and was released on bond, but the others have not been located.

The action taken by John W. Preston, United States district attorney, was caused by the publication of an article in the April number of Sunset, "Can the Panama Canal be Destroyed From the Air?"

It was illustrated with photographs taken from an aeroplane showing the canal, some of its fortifications and the San Francisco Presidio.

Application for the warrant followed investigation by Preston at the request of the war department and the attorney general.

The act said to have been violated is that forbidding the disclosure of United States defense secrets. It provides penalties of ten years imprisonment for such disclosures made abroad and one year in the United States.

GOES TO NEW YORK.

GARY, Ind., July 11.—William Wirt, superintendent of the Gary public schools, Friday left for New York where he has been employed temporarily by the board of education to formulate a comprehensive plan of vocational education for the schools of that city.

WOMAN FACES ANGRY MOB OF PRISONERS

Miss Katherine B. Davis Says She'll Have Order if She Has to Use Militia.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Seven hundred mutinous convicts at the city prison at Blackwell's Island were herded into the assembly room of the institution Friday afternoon by heavily armed guards. On the platform above them stood one woman, Miss Katherine B. Davis, New York's woman commissioner of correction, who had hastened out to the prison after the third outbreak in 48 hours had been reported to her.

As the last of the convicts found a place in the big room, Miss Davis stepped to the front of the platform and thrust her jaw at a fighting angle. Those nearest her noticed that she clenched one small fist and in this attitude she glared for a full minute into the sea of brutal faces upturned to hers. Then she spoke, and her voice was like the crack of a whip lash.

"Before I do anything else in this institution I am going to have order even if I have to call out the state militia."

That was all she said, but she held her rigid pose and kept her eyes unblinkingly on the assembled convicts.
And then spontaneously and apparently from every part of the big room at once there burst a wild cheer. The men were marched back to their cells and for a time it seemed that Miss Davis' courageous and determined stand had broken the backbone of the mutiny.

Later, however, when the murmur-ings in each corridor had arisen again, Miss Davis who had been waiting in the prison office made a trip through the prison. On each tier she made a brief address, telling the men that if they would elect one representative she would receive the entire delegation in the warden's office and listen to their complaints.

Eight convicts were sent down and they set forth their grievances. Miss Davis sent the warden and his assistants out of the room and listened alone to the convicts.

It developed that the chief complaint was against Warden Hayes, who is accused by the convicts of treating them with sardonic humor.

Burn Woodshed.

A barn at 1413 S. Chapin st., owned to $275, in a blaze of unknown origin at 2:45 o'clock Friday afternoon. The loss is covered by insurance.

Flames from the barn caught a belonging to Frank Wiczorak and caused $15 damage. Horse Co. No. 2 and the Central station responded to the alarm from box No. 318, which was pulled.

Smoke issuing from the furnace in caped conveyed the idea of fire.

Be a Perfect Man

With No Back Pains—No Nervousness—No Loss of Ambition, But With Plenty of Life and Energy and the Vigor of Youth Restored.

To be strong and manly is the aim of every man, and yet how many we find who are wasting the vitality and strength which nature gives them. Instead of developing into the strong, vigorous, manly men that nature intended them to be, they find themselves broken down, and despondent—no ambition to do anything. They struggle aimlessly along, sooner or later to become victims of dreaded disorders, their finer sensibilities blunted and their nerves shattered.

Is This the Way You Feel?

Do you feel tired in the morning and easily exhausted? Is your back weak or lame?
Do you have difficulty in fixing your thoughts? Is your memory failing? Are you losing ambition? Do you feel you are not the man you once were? Do you have hot flashes up and down the spine or sudden weak spells at the base of the brain, sudden spells like fright from no apparent cause? Are you very restless or sleepless at night? Are you very nervous and irritable, with a feeling that you want to be alone?
Are you gloomy with a sense of some great oppression upon you? If so, then you need my treatment now and we want you to call or write today. Don't delay. You surely do not want to remain in this condition. Don't suffer longer. We cure you. Master your disease before it masters you.
